

ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAL.

ORDER OF SERVICE

FOR THE BURIAL OF

SIR JOSEPH BARNBY,

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4th, 1896.

AT 12 O'CLOCK, NOON.

The Cathedral Clergy and Choir meeting the Body at the West End of the Nave, will go before it toward the Chancel, and sing the following Sentences (to music by DR. CROFT).

I AM the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord: he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die. St. John xi. 25, 26.

I KNOW that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth. And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another. Job xix. 25, 26, 27.

WE brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord. 1 Tim. vi. 7. Job i. 21.

When the Clergy and Choir have reached their Stalls, and the Coffin has been placed as appointed, the Choir will sing the following Psalm to a Chant by the late SIR J. BARNBY.

PSALM XC.—Domine, refugium.

L ORD thou hast | been our | refuge : from óne gener- | -ation | to an- | -other.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth * or ever the eárrh and the | world were | made : thou art God from everlásting and | world with- | -out | end.

3 Thou turnest mán | to de- | -struction : again thou sayest, Cóme a- | -gain ye | children . of | men.

4 For a thousand years in thy sight | are but . as | yesterday : seeing that is pást as a | watch | in the | night.

5 As soon as thou scatterest them * they are éven | as a | sleep : and fáde away | suddenly | like the | grass.

6 In the morning t is gréen and | groweth | up : but in the evening it is cut dówn | dried | up and | withered.

7 For we consume awáy in | thy dis- | -pleasure : and are afráid at thy | wrathful | indig- | -nation.

8 Thou hast sét our mis- | -deeds be- | -fore thee : and our secret sins in the | light | of thy | countenance.

9 For when thou art angry, áll our | days are | gone : we bring our years to an end * as it wére a | tale | that is | told.

10 The days of our age are three-score years and ten * and though men be so strong that they cóme to | four-score | years : yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow * so soon pásseth it a- | -way and | we are | gone.

11 But who regardeth the pówer | of thy | wrath : for even thereafter ás a man feáreth | so is | thy dis- | -pleasure.

12 O téach us to | number . our | days : that we may apply our | hearts | unto | wisdom.

13 Turn thee again, O Lórd | at the | last : ánd be | gracious | unto . thy | servants.

14 O satisfy us with thy mércy and | that | soon : so shall we rejoice and be glád all the | days | of our | life.

15 Comfort us again * now after the tíme that thou hast | plagued us : and for the years whereín | we have | suffered . ad- | -versity.

16 Shéw thy | servants . thy | work : ánd their | child- ren | thy | glory.

17 And the glorious Majesty of the Lord our Gód | be up- | -on us : prosper thou the work of our hands upon us * O próspér | thou our | handy- | -work.

Glory be to the Fáther, | and . to the | Son : ánd | to the | Holy | Ghost;

As it was in the beginning * is nów, and | ever | shall be : world without | end . | A- | -men.

Then shall be sung the Hymn following.

NOW the labourer's task is o'er ;
 Now the battle day is past ;
 Now upon the farther shore
 Lands the voyager at last.
 Father, in Thy gracious keeping
 Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

There the tears of earth are dried ;
 There its hidden things are clear ;
 There the work of life is tried
 By a juster Judge than here.
 Father, in Thy gracious keeping
 Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

There the sinful souls, that turn
 To the Cross their dying eyes,
 All the love of Christ shall learn
 At His Feet in Paradise.
 Father, in Thy gracious keeping
 Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

There no more the powers of hell
 Can prevail to mar their peace :
 Christ the Lord shall guard them well,
 He Who died for their release.
 Father, in Thy gracious keeping
 Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

"Earth to earth, and dust to dust,"
 Calmly now the words we say,
 Leaving him to sleep in trust
 Till the Resurrection-day.
 Father, in Thy gracious keeping
 Leave we now Thy servant sleeping. Amen.

Then shall follow

The LESSON, 1 Cor. xv. 20.

The Lesson being ended, the following Anthem will be sung (to music by MENDELSSOHN):—

HAPPY and blest are they who have endured, for though the body dies, the soul shall live for ever.

Then the Priest shall say :

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUR Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy Will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

OMNIPOTENT GOD, who hast knit together
 Thine elect in one communion and fellowship,
 in the mystical body of Thy Son Christ our Lord ;
 grant us grace so to follow Thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which Thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY GOD, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which Thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when He shall come again in His glorious Majesty to judge both the quick and dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through Him who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

ASSIST us mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers; and dispose the way of Thy servants towards the attainment of everlasting salvation, that among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may ever be defended by Thy most gracious and ready help, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall be sung the following Hymn (to music by the late SIR J. BARNBY).

HYMN No. 401.

SLEEP thy last sleep,
Free from care and sorrow,
Rest, where none weep,
Till th' eternal morrow;
Though dark waves roll
O'er the silent river,
Thy fainting soul
Jesus can deliver.

Life's dream is past,
All its sin, its sadness,
Brightly at last
Dawns a day of gladness;
Under thy sod,
Earth, receive our treasure,
To rest in God,
Waiting all His pleasure.

Though we may mourn
Those in life the dearest,
They shall return,
Christ, when Thou appearest!
Soon shall Thy voice
Comfort those now weeping,
Bidding rejoice
All in Jesus sleeping. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

The Clergy and Choir, in their accustomed order, will then precede the Coffin, while it is being carried to the West Door.

The rest of the Burial Service will be said by the graveside at Norwood, whither the body will be conveyed.
